

August 2009 - Sharing Good News!

The Master of Science in Operations Management (MSOM) program, under the leadership of Dr. Ed Pohl (Department of Industrial Engineering) is happy to announce the promotion of its 6 site coordinators to the position of Project/Program Specialist. These individuals are Sharon Garner of Little Rock Air Force Base, Cindi Montgomery of Naval Support Activity Mid-South at Millington, TN, Sheila Vaughen of Hurlburt Field, FL (Headquarters Air Force Special Operations), and locally Suzanne Kenner for Camden and Blytheville sites, Julie Watson serving students in remote locations across the country, and April Martin for the Fayetteville site.

The MSOM graduate program continues to be the University's largest with 188 completing their degree this past fiscal year. The program specialists are the backbone of the success of the Operations Management program, with recruitment and retention of students through their initiative, creativity, and high quality student service. Congratulations to these awesome team members!
